

2011 Global Philanthropy Leadership Competition

Purpose: Share your unique summer experience with the world! Get involved in this competition by telling the world about your remarkable experience. You will be inspiring other students and helping them create a unique summer experience and building up leadership at an early age.

Participants: Global Youth who would like to share their 2011 summer experience with others

Procedure:

- Get the Application Form from www.ivymax.com or IvyMax Learning Center
- Send in the project to competition@ivymax.com or mail to: 30 Rollins Road, Millbrae, CA 94030 by 10/20/2011.
- A group of qualified judges will select the best entries. The winning students will be honored in a public ceremony and their work will be showcased in an appropriate format.

Competition Details:

Award Categories:

Award Categories	First place	Second place	Third place
Best Writing	Sony Bloggie	Olympus Camera	Apple iPod Shuffle
Best photograph	Sony Bloggie	Olympus Camera	Apple iPod Shuffle
Best Video	Sony Bloggie	Olympus Camera	Apple iPod Shuffle
Best Group Project	$300	$200	$100
Best Personal Project	Sony Bloggie	Olympus Camera	Apple iPod Shuffle
Participation Award	For all participants who enter the competition didn't win an award.

- Best Writing
Can be essay, poem or prose, word limit 100-1000 words
Topic: summer experience, your thoughts, feeling, and gains etc.
Can be in English or Chinese
Word limit: 100-1000 words
Email us a word file
- Best Photograph
Theme: Summer experience with (caption: a sentence of no more than 10 words)
Size: 1-10MB
Email us or burn into CD and mail us
- Best Video
Theme: related to summer experience
HD quality preferred
Less than 10 minutes long
Burn into CD or E-mail us
- Best Group Project

Can be a painting, research paper, book or description of the group project, physical display .
E-mail or mail to us.

- Best Group Project

Can be a painting, research paper, book or description of the project, physical display .
E- mail or mail to us.

- Participation Award

For all participants who enter the competition didn't win an award.

Contact us:

E-mail: Competition@ivymax.com

Address: IvyMax Summer Camp Competition
30 Rollins Road, Millbrae, CA 94030

Entries collection and evaluation procedures:

- Due date: October 20, 2011
- Evaluation: October 21, 2011 - October 27, 2011
- Award Ceremony:
 - October 29, 2011 (Southern California)
 - October 30, 2011 (Northern California)

Limitation against liability

1. Entries become the property of IvyMax and will not be returned;
2. Entry should be original and the entrant owns the entry;
3. The entry does not violate the privacy rights, copyright, contract rights or other rights (including but not limited to intellectual property rights) of any person, corporation or entity;
4. If the entry in any way includes third parties, entrant has obtained the required consents and releases from those third parties to include them in their entry;
5. If the entry in any way includes third parties under the age of 18 years, they have obtained the required consents and releases from the parents or legal guardians (as applicable) of those third parties or the third party property owners to include them in their entry;
6. By entering the competition, entrants acknowledge that their entry may be used by IvyMax for IvyMax's current and future promotional and marketing purposes without further reference or compensation to them.

2011 GPL Competition Application Form

Student Name		Gender		Age
School				Grade
Home address
City/State/Country
Email
Please check the category you want to compete
<input type="checkbox"/> Best Writing	Title:
<input type="checkbox"/> Best Photograph	Caption:
<input type="checkbox"/> Best Video	Title:
<input type="checkbox"/> Best Group Project Please give a description about your project. (within 50 words)	Group members:
	Project Introduction:
<input type="checkbox"/> Best Personal Project Please give a description about your project. (within 50 words)	Project Introduction:

Limitation against liability

1. Entries become the property of IvyMax and will not be returned.
2. Entry should be original and the entrant owns the entry.
3. The entry does not violate the privacy rights, copyright, contract rights or other rights (including but not limited to intellectual property rights) of any person, corporation or entity.
4. If the entry in any way includes third parties, entrant has obtained the required consents and releases from those third parties to include them in their entry.
5. If the entry in any way includes third parties under the age of 18 years, they have obtained the required consents and releases from the parents or legal guardians (as applicable) of those third parties or the third party property owners to include them in their entry.
6. By entering the competition, entrants acknowledge that their entry may be used by IvyMax for IvyMax's current and future promotional and marketing purposes without further reference or compensation to them.

By signing below, I acknowledge and represent that I have read the foregoing release, understand it, and sign it voluntarily as my own free act and deed.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____ Date: _____